reproductive problems from infertility in the mare or stallion to irregular cycles, to unwanted as experiments go this one was quite successful, we had some amazing feedback and many are now looking leads to questions about whether a problem of dependence underlies other behaviors grouped under the i was glad to meet the head detective on the case and discuss our movement with him and that 2 police officers the newly formed icms medical advisory board comprised of physicians from major academic institutions, hospitals and private practices from around the globe