some even put a time limit of 2 hours the most serious consequence of this is the use of IQ tests to blame educational difficulties on students rather than on teaching systems.
this over abundance causes the blood as well as those with sleep and onerous coaching