if it is causal, controlling these fluctuations with blood pressure medication might help reduce the risk of dementia, mooijaart added be aware of the fact that by 7th grade, government regulations require the teacher to enhance the pace of math instruction significantly